

Bull Terrier Club of St. Louis

March 13, 2016

Judge: Lynne Myall

It was very exciting to have such a good entry this weekend, the numbers were above average which was matched by the quality of the entries. Several significant animals surfaced during the judging, and, interestingly the whites proved more successful than the coloreds. I shall follow the progress of the winners with delight.

Thank you to all who exhibited, and to the hospitality of the Bull Terrier Club of St. Louis. Special thanks to Steve Altmann who shared his home as a gathering spot after the showing, and to Claudia Sharp for her keen attention to detail, hard work and nurturing of the breed and the owners.
