

The Bull Terrier Club of Metro Detroit

Specialty

October 1, 2016

Judge: Lynne Myall

Thank you sincerely for the assignments which included the Bull Terrier Club of Metro Detroit Specialty and the next day at the Monroe K.C., multiple other Terrier breeds and Terrier Group.

The specialty entry was very rewarding. There was a significant improvement in the quality of the exhibits, with typey exhibits made correctly and carrying lovely headpieces. My winners were world class and it was thrilling to be able to reward such lovely animals. Thank you to the club for their hospitality and for the camaraderie, it was a great weekend. Lynne Myall - Icen.

COLORED

Winners Bitch

Cockburn and Prater Piles' FORMULA FOR THE POWER OF MOONLIGHT (Emred Huntsman ex GCH Action Headed for Power) Well-proportioned bitch with lovely headpiece. Profile to head was well curved from backskull to nose, and the fill beneath the eyes, and to the end of the muzzle, was strongly packed. Mouth undershot. Good dark eye with keen expression, and head well held on clean strong neck leading into well placed shoulders. Compact body with strong ribcage, good topline, shorter in loin and in very good condition. Clearly muscled rear and powerful in movement. Her virtues far outweighed her mouth fault, she is a treasure for her owners - well done.
