Carolyn I Alexander

Palm Springs has one of the most beautiful show grounds in the world. The weather was magnificent and everyone was delighted to be there. I judged BT the first of the 4 day cluster for the Desert Empire Terrier Club (one of several very nice, truly fun Terrier clubs and shows on the West Coast). The entry was somewhat reduced because unusually bad weather in northern California, Oregon, Utah, etc prevented dogs and their drivers from getting through to the Thursday show.

BIGSHOT BETTER MAN RN283858021/23/2015. Breeder: Agnes Brouer. By Emred Devils Spy -- Bigshot Lady Lollipop. Michael Hernandez and Franne Berez

Strong, mature male from the open class. Powerful. Brindle/tri ear markings. While he did not show particularly well, he is well made with good bone and substance. He has a good quality, filled head with a correct bite, strong, deep muzzle, varminty eyes and handsome expression. Moves adequately both directions. Topline is not truly correct and not well carried. Carries his tail somewhat gaily, but has a good tail set. WD and Best Owner Handler.

A young, agile male from the Am Bred class. This boy was competitive and with some additional time and maturity should be utterly gorgeous and doing a great deal of winning. He is already very classy and shows with style and confidence. He has a beautiful turn of head, but lacks some of the fill of WD. Lovely eyes. Well made body with correct angulation front and rear, elegant neck structure. Moves well.

A lovely balanced bitch from the Open Bitch class. A good quality head with a correct bite, tiny eyes, good fill and nice earset. The neck flowing into the shoulders and the solid topline helps create a really beautiful silhouette. Moves well and holds her topline on the move.

UKUSA RICOCHET AM04438704 UK10/22/2011. Breeder: Andrea and Gary Newberry. By Megaville's Vision -- Kenine Sweet By Nature at Ukusa. Norberto Aspera & Andrea L Fernandez

From the Open class, he is a very handsome black brindle dog, nicely marked with white. Quality head with overall good strength in head, nice downturn, very good fill, beautiful tiny eyes, good earset and fully correct bite. Good bone and substance. Classy. He moves nicely, but he does not carry his topline well, possibly because he is well angulated in front quarters, but more moderately in the rear.

A compact, well made. mature brindle and white bitch. Attractive head especially in profile, with good underjaw. Her white markings are not her friend as if judges do not look carefully, they can miss seeing some of the strength in her head. Adequate bone. Good layback of shoulders with good forechest. Tidy feet. Beautiful topline and carriage on the move.
