

Teleconference Board Meeting Highlights—8/26/09

1. David Harris is replacing David Harrison at the Detroit Specialty on 9/26/09.
2. David Merriam, not Gordon Smith, is the judge for the Friday Specialty in St. Louis 2010.
3. BARKS will be going back to its original size of 6x9 for the next issue. The printer has a new machine that enables a return to this size as well as a better quality paper and the same price as the 5 ½ x 8 ½ size.
4. The website store opening is imminent---Keep Watching!
5. The BTCA will be offering the first in a series of Famous Bullie pins. Mary Jung, Alison Ibbitson, and Jeff Pollock have combined their talents and come up with a really fun collectible. The first pin will be ready by Silverwood---WHO will it be????
6. The BTCA will also be offering the first in a series of collectible seasonal prints. There will be a limited edition of 100 available on the first print. Get ready to order yours so you don't miss out.
7. The Trophy Sponsorship and Solicitation Committee has received donations from a 501C3 group and the Saguaro State Bull Terrier Club. The Board has agreed that donations from 501C3 organizations are acceptable as they are recognized and legitimate groups. Donations from groups that are not recognized entities by either the AKC or BTCA are not able to be accepted. Donations by individuals from non recognized groups may be accepted. In all circumstances, the Board stands by its disclaimer regarding participation by outside organizations.
8. Many thanks to Mary Jung and Alison Ibbitson for the design and coordination of this years Newcomer button that will be distributed in San Jose this year.
9. For those members requesting e-mail notifications, dues notices will be going out presently. For those members who may not yet have requested e-mail correspondence, please consider. It helps the BTCA's pocketbook and saves man power.
