Winners Dog and Best of Winners

Utt's ARDRY N BULLARDS SMOKE'N (Ch Ardry Desert Heat – Bullards Patrisha Amelia) A good size dog with small tri-color on ear. Strong head with good profile although tad flat mid-profile. Good Roman finish. Very good teeth and bite. Super eye. Excellent bone and substance. Tad long in back. Strong topline. Moved well both ways.

Reserve Winners Bitch

D & S Harris' ALLEGRO ADDICTED TO LOVE (GCh Allegro Rockstar – Allegro Can Can) A promising puppy with tri-color on ear. A really first class head with it all –profile, fill, bite and eye. Good bone and substance. Rather long back with a serious dip. However, she was a bit unsure of herself in the ring and this may improve. Moderate mover.

Winners bitch and Best Opposite Sex

Aron & Foote's DESLYNN'S LINEN AND LACE (Ch Bedlam Kid Natral of Deslynn – Deslynn's Libbey on the Label at Donnybrook) How refreshing to see a small one in the ring. She entered the ring as a prima donna and kept up the performance to the end. Truly a one piece terrier. A very good head in profile. Could use more fill. Correct bite and excellent eye. OK substance and bone for size. Very shapely in body. Well balanced. A super mover both ways.

Best of Variety

D & S Harris' GCH ALLEGRO SUPERSTAR (Ch Allegro Red Bull – Ch Allegro Sticky Fingers) What a contrast to my BOS. This chap is power and density personified. A heavyweight with a truly impressive head. Good fill and Roman finish. Tad flat mid profile. Correct bite and excellent eye. A powerful head. Abundance of bone and substance. Short back (so rare these days) with correct roll over loin. Very good coat and feet. Moved well front and rear. No wonder he has so many fans coast to coast. A quality dog.
